Joint Standing Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety

Re: Committee recommendations regarding LD 1043, An Act Making Unified Appropriations and Allocations for the Expenditures of State Government, general Fund and Other Funds, and Changing Certain Provisions of the Law Necessary to the Proper Operations of State Government for the Fiscal Years Ending June 30, 2012 and June 30, 2013.

Date: April 7, 2011

Please find attached related work sheets outlining the Criminal Justice and Public Safety Committee's recommendations regarding LD 1043. Please also accept this memo, which outlines some important concerns that we wish to bring to your attention as you work through this budget.

MEMA

The committee supports MEMA's requests without change (13-0). The committee continues to recognize the importance of the stream gaging program and hopes that perhaps additional federal funding may at some point again become available for this program, as was the case in the last two fiscal years. Also, some members initially expressed concerns about positions in the budget; however, after clarification from Director McAleer, the committee recognizes the importance of ensuring the provision of critical functions. Refilling two positions previously vacated by retirement and retaining two existing limited-period positions will ensure the performance of critical functions, and there would be very little GF impact if the committee recommended not to fund them. Therefore, we support MEMA's budget as presented. (See CRJ-52 – CRJ-57)

STATE BOARD OF CORRECTIONS

Eight members of the committee voted to recommend the SBOC Investment Fund Initiative of $3.5 million in FY 2011-12 and 2012-13, and five members voted against the motion. Those voting against cast their votes this way not because they oppose providing money to support county jail costs, but because they believe that they are being asked to make this decision absent a thorough vetting of the entire Department of Corrections budget; they are trying to solve a problem without having sufficient information to effectively do so. The counties are grateful for the $3.5 million in each fiscal year, but at the same time, they are feeling growing frustration with the limitations of the unified act.

All committee members recognize the shortfall in this specific request ($9.6 million was initially requested by the counties and $3.5 million was put forth by the SBOC in this budget) and that there are Department of Corrections cuts that require comment and cannot be considered in their own silo, separately from this SBOC initiative. This session the committee will be a hearing and working a number of bills regarding modifications to the current unified correctional system. One issue that all agree on is that 95%+ of the SBOC's time has been spent on county jail budgets, which has thwarted the Legislature's intent for the SBOC to move forward with the counties and the Department of Corrections in finding more cooperative cost-sharing initiatives and efficiencies in the entire system. Although the existing system has saved local property taxpayer dollars, there are challenges in the existing system and how we are supporting the counties. (See CRJ-49 – CRJ-51)

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Votes of the committee were unanimous in support of all DOC initiatives. However, the committee notes that because of a number of the requests are inadequately funded, we anticipate seeing some of them again in the next supplemental budget. Specifically, the committee understands that DOC's requests for food, fuel and utilities were funded at half what their actual cost is anticipated; the allocated amount for overtime in this budget has not been determined to be adequate or inadequate by the department, which may have implications for FY 2013; the implications of employee retirements are not known; and the state prisoner boarding rate set in statute may be revisited and revised. (See CRJ-1 – CRJ-48)

Also, in regard to the proposed language changes in Part BB, the committee supports Sec. BB-1 but suggests amendment to Sec. BB-2. Although we understand the need for flexibility in moving funds and even positions to meet department needs, the committee recommends changing the language to require the department to come back to the Legislature before implementing changes by financial order, if the changes contemplated include a program or mission change. (See CRJ-83 and Proposed Amendment)

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

Votes were unanimous on all initiatives with the exception Ref. # 20180 and Ref. # 20190, which are the 2 initiatives regarding the MDEA. One member of the committee voted against both of MDEA's initiatives, and that member was joined by another member in voting against #20190. The two members have concerns about increasing GF appropriations to pay for MDEA agents who were previously paid for with federal dollars. Although the members do not support decreasing enforcement, they believe that additional support could potentially come from the local level, instead of from the GF. Other committee members were not convinced that local departments would be able to give up officers without reimbursement at a time when they are struggling financially, too. (See CRJ-60 – CRJ-81)

The committee also continues to express interest in seeing the Governor's promised change package that should restore the investigators in the Office of the Fire Marshal whose positions were eliminated with cuts to the Fund for Healthy Maine. (See FHM-33)

FIRE PROTECTION SERVICES COMMISSION

Although there is no new initiative for the commission, the committee supports the commission's important work and its placeholder. (See CRJ-58 – CRJ-59)

Thank you for your attention to these important matters. We look forward to discussing them with you at our joint meeting on April 7th.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT to LD 1043
from CRIMINAL JUSTICE & PUBLIC SAFETY COMMITTEE

Sec. #. Part BB, Sec. BB-2 is amended as follows:

Sec. BB-2. Transfers and adjustments to position count. The Commissioner of Corrections shall review the current organizational structure to improve organizational efficiency and cost-effectiveness. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Budget Officer shall transfer the position counts and available balances by financial order upon approval of the Governor in order to achieve the purpose of this section, except that any transfer or adjustment pursuant to this section that would result in a program or mission change must first be brought back to the committee having jurisdiction over appropriations and financial affairs for review before it may be implemented by financial order.

SUMMARY

This amendment specifies that any change in the current organizational structure of the Department of Corrections that would result in a program or mission change must first come back to the Appropriations and Financial Affairs Committee for review before the change may be implemented by financial order.

Re: LD 1043 pertaining to the Adult Drug Treatment Court

Date: April 3, 2011

Although Maine's Adult Drug Treatment Court does not fall directly under the jurisdiction of the Criminal Justice and Public Safety Committee for purposes of its budget, the work of the Adult Drug Treatment Court does in fact have a very direct impact on the correctional system, the law enforcement system and the entire criminal justice system. In our committee, we see and hear first hand the growing impact that drug abuse has on the families and communities of Maine. The severity of a person's dependency is directly related to criminal conduct, and we see that as at least 95% of those incarcerated suffer from some level of substance abuse. Dependency and addiction have led to increased criminal activity throughout the State and put the State in the position of picking up the broken pieces for the offenders and their victims who are subject to the resulting violent crimes, abuse and neglect.

Because these problems of drug abuse and its related crime continue to increase at a time when our enforcement and interdiction resources and community treatment service programs face cuts, and our correctional system continues to struggle to serve its growing population, it makes no sense to eliminate any of the funding that supports Maine's Adult Drug Treatment Court. The program has proven itself to successfully hold criminal offenders accountable, stop crime related to substance abuse and increase the likelihood of successful rehabilitation of offenders. The Adult Drug Treatment Court provides this through very structured and intensive judicially-supervised substance abuse treatment and other rehabilitation services that permit offenders to work on their addictions at the same time that they become reintegrated in their communities as productive and responsible citizens.

We all share an interest in reducing offenders' drug and alcohol dependency, increasing community safety and reducing recidivism. By providing the structure and the network to offenders so that they can address their dependency and become productive and healthy community members, we all win. The work of the Adult Drug treatment Court is not easy for the participants, their support systems or criminal justice professionals, but we should continue to support them in their willingness to do this difficult work. The program's success comes with little demands on State resources compared to the alternatives described above. The members of the Criminal Justice and Public Safety Committee strongly urge you to keep and maintain funding for the Adult Drug Treatment Court. Thank you for your attention to this very important matter. We would be happy to answer any questions that you may have and look forward to discussing this with you when we next meet.

Justification:

The Administration-Corrections account provides for the centralized executive direction, administrative, for the entire Department of Corrections and to coordinate and manage state correctional responsibilities. The Department of Corrections is responsible for the planning, direction and management of adult and juvenile correctional facilities, community corrections and programs within the state. The department administers the state's correctional facilities, provides for the safety of staff and clients, undertakes appropriate programming for the classification, education, rehabilitation and maintenance of clients and assures an effective system for the supervision of parolees and probationers. The department is responsible for the direction and administration of the Maine State Prison, the Maine Correctional Center, the Charleston Correctional Facility, Long Creek Youth Development Center, Mountain View Youth Development Center, the Downeast Correctional Facility, Central Maine Pre-Release Center and the Women's Reentry Center. The department also administers community corrections programs for adult and juvenile probationers. The department is authorized to establish and maintain programs, inside and outside of correctional facilities that provide rehabilitation services and opportunities for clients. The Department of Corrections may provide or assist in the provision of correctional services throughout the State as authorized by Maine law, and the department is responsible for setting standards and inspection of municipal and county jails. The Department of Corrections was created by the Legislature in 1981 to improve the administration of correctional facilities, programs and services for committed offenders. In 2008, the department reorganized internally to establish a division of juvenile services and a division of adult services. The institutional and community corrections functions are now included in the juvenile or adult divisions. In 2007, in response to the increasing prisoner population and the lack of adequate housing capacity within the state's correctional facilities, the department opened the Women's Reentry Center in Bangor and contracted to house state prisoners in county jails. In the 2008, the Legislature created a Board of Corrections to oversee the adult correctional services administered by the department and the county jails with the goal of establishing a unified corrections system. The program activities of the department are discussed in the individual reports of its program components except for the following: JAIL INSPECTIONS - the department has the statutory responsibility to establish, inspect and enforce standards for county jails, municipal holding facilities, juvenile detention areas, correctional community residential and electronic monitoring. These standards are based on established and emerging professional practices and case law requirements. Additionally the department provides technical assistance to all entities in establishing and maintaining compliance programs. MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SERVICES - the department is expanding its information management system for adult and juvenile offenders. Corrections Information System (CORIS) is a fully integrated, web based offender information system built from the ground up using Microsoft.NET technology. The result is an industry leading, enterprise class system that, being fully scalable, effectively supports the needs of all state correctional functions. CORIS also supports case management, offender financial management, restitution collection and central office information reports. The department has implemented a customized Inmate Phone System which is integrated with CORIS. The phone system uses Voice over Internet Protocol, voice recognition, CORIS's inmate trust accounts and the telecommunication industry's new prepaid flat rates.

Justification:

The Adult Community Services (formerly the Division of Adult Community Corrections though more commonly referred to as Probation and Parole) was established to provide community based supervision and related services to convicted offenders sentenced to probation or parole. The Division's primary role is to motivate a change in the probationer's behavior in order to lessen the likelihood of the probationer to re-offend. The enhancement of public safety is achieved through the reduction of victimization. Over the years the role of the probation officer has changed dramatically. Thus while monitoring and supervision are still important activities performed by probation officers they are also actively involved in risk and needs assessment, interventions, case management, treatment and program referrals, etc. Traditional duties such as pardons and commutation investigations for the Governor's office, pre-sentence investigations for the courts, and post-sentence, pre-parole and other investigations for the state's correctional institutions remain a part of their assignment. In addition, activities such as sex offender registration, restitution/fine collection, DNA and substance abuse testing, data collection, community notification and supervision of adult probationers under the interstate compact are also some of the newer duties that have had to be assumed by probation officers as new laws and court cases impact their duties and responsibilities. The demands on probation officers continue to escalate and therefore the need for ongoing training has never been greater in the history of this Division. The Division of Adult Community Services is dedicated to balancing the needs of public safety, victim and community restoration, offender accountability and using effective approaches to reduce re-offending and enhance effective reintegration into communities. Under community supervision, offenders receive services that include monitoring through surveillance and personal and collateral contacts based on risk of re-offending and treatment intervention based on needs assessments.

Justification:

The Central Maine Pre-Release Center (CMPRC), provides a minimum-security facility housing prisoners cleared for community work release and work crews. The facility is located in Hallowell and is supervised through Adult Community Corrections. CMPRC currently has a rated capacity of 58 and, currently houses 57 prisoners. Central Maine Pre-Release Center also houses prisoners within the Transition Therapeutic Program for substance abuse. These individual have graduated from the Therapeutic Community Program at the Maine Correctional Center and have been moved to CMPRC to continue the program and reenter the community. CMPRC provides structure, supervision and security to prisoners during the transition from incarceration to release. Prisoners participate in community reentry programs (work release, education release, public service release), and utilize community services (counseling, substance abuse treatment, alcoholics anonymous, educational, and social services), while presenting a minimum risk to the public's safety and property.

Justification:

The Charleston Correctional Facility was established to provide public safety through effective security operations and programming aimed at reducing the likelihood that they will re-offend when in the community. All prisoners housed at Charleston Correctional Facility are classified as minimum or community based security. The prisoners participate in education, treatment and vocational programs in addition to industries programs and a unique work release program.

The Charleston Correctional Facility currently houses approximately 145 male prisoners. Prisoners are received from higher security level institutions, such as the Maine State Prison in Warren, the Maine Correctional Center in Windham and the Downeast Correctional Facility in Bucks Harbor. A comprehensive classification process reviews the prisoner's need for rehabilitative services such as education, vocation, psychological, and substance abuse. An educational learning center/library is located on facility grounds. Instruction is offered in GED preparation and testing, Adult Basic Education, NOVA Net college courses and basic computer skills. Substance abuse services are provided at an intensive level as well as some psycho-educational classes. The facility has started a cognitive skills based program called Thinking for a Change which teaches prisoners new skills to deal with daily challenges. Parenting skills, life skills, and employment skills training are also available through collaboration with other community agencies. Vocational programs and industries programs are provided in wood harvesting and small saw mill operation. Finished lumber is sold to other Correctional and State Agencies in addition to being utilized in our industry program to manufacture fine furniture, woodcrafts, prefab shelters, and construction products. This program is accomplished through a cooperative agreement with the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife. The cooperative agreement allows the Charleston Correctional Facility wood-harvesting program to provide land management services to the 7,000+ acre Bud Leavitt Wildlife Management Area that abuts the facility property. The wood-harvesting program produces several hundred cords of fuel wood and slab wood for the facility's boiler plant to supplement the use of oil in order to provide heat and hot water for the entire facility. This has saved the facility considerable funds annually by reducing fuel oil costs. In addition, the industry program produced thousands of board feet lumber. The Charleston Correctional Facility's total progressive corrections program has a very strong public restitution element providing public restitution to communities, non profit agencies and State Agencies to include the Maine Department of Transportation. Prisoners are trained and ready to be utilized to fight forest fires and prisoners that have earned that privilege are offered an opportunity to enter the Facility's unique work release program. Prisoners in the program are required to contribute to their living expenses, provide family support, pay victim restitution, pay unpaid fines and save money to utilize upon their release. The Charleston Correctional Facility has evolved into a dynamic program offering real-world work experience, coupled with evidence-based programming and transitional services. Our facility has consistently been a leader in all areas of minimum/community security corrections. Prisoners housed at Charleston Correctional Facility have the opportunity to make significant strides toward self-improvement. The prisoners are afforded the opportunity to improve their life skills, employability and self-knowledge through vocational training, community restitution programming, academics, counseling programs and a unique work release program; all of which assist the prisoner in a positive reintegration to the greater community.

Justification:

The Maine Correctional Center was established to improve public safety by decreasing the recidivism of both male and female prisoners by providing opportunities for correctional rehabilitation within a supervised and secure setting, while assuring the safety of the public, the staff, and the prisoners. While striving to complete this mission, the Maine Correctional Center recognizes the indispensable and valuable contributions of its security, program, and support staff and is committed to the ongoing development of a professional and skilled work force. The Maine Correctional Center is the primary reception center for the DOC. Prisoners with sentences of five (5) years or less, and all female prisoners, enter the department through the Maine Correctional Center. At the completion of the intake and orientation process, prisoners may be placed in a unit at Maine Correctional Center or transferred to another facility. Programs for prisoners confined at the Maine Correctional Center focus on teaching appropriate conduct, personal responsibility, and work skills. The center has specialized programs to assist prisoners re-entering the community. Prisoners work various jobs within the institution which include kitchen, laundry, grounds maintenance and landscaping. Public restitution crews work in the community under the supervision of correctional trades instructors completing public service projects. Industry programs in upholstery, wood construction and garments provide basic work skills. Education programs include General Educational Development (GED) preparation and testing. Vocational training offers graphic arts and computer repair. Medical, mental health and psychiatry services are available to all prisoners through a contract with Correctional Medical Services (CMS). Prisoners are assigned to a unit team which monitors prisoner adjustment to case management and transition/release planning. The substance abuse programs for both men and women are provided through a partnership with the State Office of Substance Abuse. The Women's Center is designed as a secure correctional community with focus on personal development, trauma recovery, substance abuse treatment and community re-entry. Through these programs the Maine Correctional Center strives toward its mission to improve community safety by teaching personal responsibility, involving prisoners in rehabilitation programs and lowering recidivism.

Justification:

The Downeast Correctional Facility was established by the Legislature in September 1984 for the confinement and rehabilitation of persons who have been duly sentenced and committed to the Department of Corrections. Funds were appropriated to purchase and renovate the former Bucks Harbor Air Force Station into a fully operational medium security correctional facility. The facility is a medium/minimum security institution with an average prisoner population of 143 to 150. Programs offered at Downeast Correctional Facility consist of educational, industry, treatment, and community restitution. The educational programs offered at Downeast Correctional Facility are academic and vocational based. The academic programs are geared toward high school equivalency (GED), and courses emphasizing everyday life skills. A NovaNet system allows prisoners to enroll in courses ranging from grade school level up to and including college level via a closed circuit of the Intranet. The vocational programs offer training in the following career fields: upholstery, welding, automotive repair/restoration and building trades. Each career field is staffed with an instructor who oversees the program and its participants. In July 2001 a garment industry program was initiated at Downeast Correctional Facility wherein denim jeans and jackets are manufactured by the facility's prisoners. The jeans and jackets manufactured at Downeast Correctional Facility furnish the entire Maine Department of Corrections adult prisoner population. The treatment programs offered at Downeast Correctional Facility focus primarily on mental health issues and substance abuse. These programs are directed and monitored by the facility's medical, caseworker, and psychological support staff. The community restitution program at Downeast Correctional Facility provides assistance to other state agencies, local municipalities and non-profit organizations. With the support of the community restitution program agencies are able to use fewer financial resources maintaining their facilities thereby providing them more resources to pursue their organizational goals. Some restitution work is performed within the confines of the correctional facility while a select group of prisoners work in the community under constant security supervision.

Justification:

The Juvenile Justice Advisory Group (JJAG) was created in response to the federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act (JJDP) of 1974, as amended (the Act). The Act creates a voluntary partnership between states and the federal government for the purpose of improving the administration of juvenile justice. In return for an annual formula grant, based on the state's juvenile population, each state undertakes to meet four congressionally defined standards ("Core" requirements) for the management of juvenile offenders. These core requirements relate to: 1) the handling of status offenders; 2) the separation of juvenile from adult prisoners; 3) the detention of juveniles in places other than adult jails; and 4) the protection of minority youth from discrimination in the juvenile justice system. Maine has participated in the Act since its inception. The JJAG operates as the supervisory board for all planning, administrative and funding functions under the Act. The JJAG was first established as a committee of the Maine Criminal Justice Planning and Assistance Agency. It was formalized by Executive Order 4FY80 on October 5, 1979, and authorized by statute in 1984 (34-A M.R.S.A., section 1209). Since July 1, 1982, the Department of Corrections (DOC) has acted as the JJAG's administrative and fiscal agent. The federal allocation for Maine Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Program for federal fiscal year 2010 is $600,000. Up to 10% of the award is available for planning and program administration, determined by need and available state matching funds and $30,000 is allocated for the activities of the JJAG. The remainder of the formula grant is allocated to a variety of programs to support improvement of the juvenile justice system. In accordance with their three-year plan, JJAG will support prevention and early intervention programs designed to keep at-risk youth out of the juvenile justice system, development of a comprehensive strategy to address delinquency among Native American youth and monitoring of and technical assistance for jails to maintain compliance with the Federal JJDP Act. The JJAG further supports community prevention efforts with the pass-through of federal funds from the Title V Local Delinquency Prevention Program. The FY2010 allocation of $48,360 will be distributed by a competitive process with eligibility restricted to general units of local government. The general fund is the match requirement for the administration of the formula grant. The Juvenile Accountability Block Grant is administered by the JJAG. The Juvenile Accountability Block Grants (JABG) program is administered by the State Relations and Assistance Division of the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. Through the JABG program, funds are provided as block grants to states for programs promoting greater accountability in the juvenile justice system. Maine supports community-based diversion programs, with the award.

Justification:

The Juvenile Community Corrections was established to provide effective supervision to youth under its jurisdiction who are residing in the community. Using a risk reduction case management model, staff assess risk domains and strengths presented by juveniles, develop case plans, access and advocate for appropriate resources to implement case plans, collaborate with other State agencies and public and private providers to ensure that appropriate interventions are provided, and monitor progress of the case plan. This approach targets dynamic risk factors that lead to continued criminal behavior, provides and directs appropriate interventions that will mitigate those risk factors, which ultimately assists the juvenile to remain crime free. Concurrently, the Juvenile Community Corrections Officers (JCCO) will divert youth from the correctional system, supervise those on probation or aftercare status, and manage those youth detained or incarcerated to protect public safety. Juvenile Community Corrections is also responsible for the administration of the Interstate Compact for Juveniles. Three regional offices provide services to juveniles across the state. A Regional Correctional Administrator, who reports directly to the Associate Commissioner for Juvenile Services, administers each region. JCCOs accept referrals from law enforcement officers and supervise and case manage juvenile offenders in the community. Regional Supervisors provide case management consultation and direct supervision to JCCOs and assist them to find appropriate resources for juveniles on their caseloads. Two Contract Managers assure that all contracted services are provided in a manner consistent with the assessed needs of juvenile offenders. Outcome performance measures are incorporated into all contracts to ensure program effectiveness. Support staff assists in the overall management of the regional offices. Regional offices receive referrals from law enforcement officers for detention decisions or to screen for possible diversion. The JCCOs, based on specified criteria, determine whether juveniles should be detained pending a court hearing. They also decide whether a youth can be safely diverted from the correctional system. In the latter case youth are dealt with informally through a contract specifying conditions to which the youth and his/her family agree to comply in lieu of going to court. Using an evidence-based risk management and risk focused intervention approach the JCCO's supervise and case manage youth placed on probation or on aftercare from one of the juvenile facilities. JCCOs also serve as the primary case managers for juveniles committed or detained at juvenile correctional facilities.

Justification:

The Long Creek Youth Development Center was established to rehabilitate clients committed to the Center as juvenile offenders so that they eventually return to the community as more responsible, productive, law-abiding citizens. The Center is responsible for the rehabilitation of juvenile offenders committed by Maine courts, applying the disciplines of education, casework, group work, psychology, psychiatry, medicine, nursing, vocational training, and religion, as they relate to human relations and personality development. Boys and girls between the ages of eleven and eighteen may be committed to the Center for the term of their minority, or, in some cases, until their 21st birthdays. The Superintendent acts as a guardian to all children committed and may place any such child on aftercare with any suitable person or persons or public or private child care agency. The Long Creek Youth Development Center is also, required, by law, to detain juveniles pending their court appearances. Long Creek Youth Development Center functions as the correctional facility for the juveniles from the southern part of the state. The purpose of the center is to provide for the detention, diagnostic evaluation and confinement of juvenile offenders. In addition, the center promotes public safety by ensuring that juvenile offenders are provided with education, treatment, and other services that teach skills and competencies; strengthen pro-social behaviors and require accountability to victims and communities.

Justification:

The Mountain View Youth Development Center in Charleston was established to provide juvenile correctional services for the ten Northern/Central counties of Aroostook, Franklin, Hancock, Kennebec, Knox, Penobscot, Piscataquis, Somerset, Waldo and Washington. Formerly known as The Northern Maine Juvenile Detention Facility, the programs, services and physical plant were expanded and reorganized into the current Mountain View Youth Development Center in 2002. The Center provides services to both short term detention population as well as longer term committed youth. Detention services include short term secure detention, pending court disposition of youth accused of committing juvenile crimes and is placement for juveniles sentenced to brief periods of incarceration of less than 30 days, known as "Shock Sentences" or periods of less than seven days as a "Drug Court Sanction". Residents sentenced to indeterminate periods of confinement or committed to the Department of Corrections are served by facility. The Mountain View Youth Development achieved national accreditation from the American Correctional Association in May 2006. The facility offers numerous programs and services to provide all residents the opportunity to change inappropriate behaviors, attitudes and beliefs into those that are socially acceptable. These services focus on providing the youth with attainable skills and competencies that are effective and demonstrable. The primary method of achieving these changes is cognitive/behaviorally based and individualized to meet the specific needs of all youth and reduce targeted high risk behaviors. A full array of mental health and substance abuse services, which include evaluation, diagnostics, appropriate counseling and therapy are available through licensed practitioners using individual and group processes. Other services provided include volunteer and religious services, leisure recreation and full medical and dental. The facility provides all educational services including special education programs within the guidelines of the "Maine Learning Results" in a unique alternative experiential approach through the facility's approved school. The educational programs encourage individual success for residents to become life long learners. Available services range from GED preparation to college entry and college classes. In August of 2007, the facility was recognized by the Council for Juvenile Correctional Administrators (CJCA) and the Performance-based Standards Learning Institute (PbS Li) as one of the top three facilities in the country earning the Barbara Allen-Hagen Award for outstanding and exemplary work in ensuring safety for youths and staff, holding youths accountable, and providing effective rehabilitation services that prevent future crime.

Justification:

The Office of Victim Services program was established to administer the department's responsibilities for victim notification, victim compensation and restitution, and to improve services to victims and the victim community. The Office of Victim Services is responsible for the provision of services to victims of crime whose offenders are in the custody of or under the supervision of the Department of Corrections. A person who is the victim of a crime is entitled to certain basic rights: to be treated with dignity and respect; to be free from intimidation; to be assisted by criminal justice agencies and to be informed about the criminal justice system. The Office of Victim Services advocates for enforcement of the rights of victims served by the Department of Corrections. The Office of Victim Services (M.R.S.A. 34-A Section 1214) advocates for compliance by the department, any correctional facility, any detention facility, community corrections or contract agency with all laws, administrative rules and other policies relating to the rights and dignity of victims. The Office of Victim Services also provides services to victims whose offenders are in the custody of or under supervision by the Department of Corrections. The Office of Victim Services strives to ensure that victims who request notification are notified of the prisoner's release, victims receive the restitution to which they are entitled, and victims are free from harassment by offenders in the custody of or under the supervision of the department. The Office of Victim Services provides a toll free number for victims to receive information regarding an offender's status. The Office of Victim Services encourages the participation of crime victims on the Department of Corrections Victim Advisory Group and Impact of Crime Panels. The Office of Victim Services offers assistance with victim impact statements, and promotes the inclusion of victim impact statements into decisions regarding prisoner release. The Office of Victim Services offers safety planning meetings to victims of sex offenders and other high risk offenders prior to the offender's release from incarceration. The Office of Victim Services certifies and monitors Batterer Intervention and training and technical assistance as requested throughout the state; and provides referrals to appropriate community based service providers.

Justification:

The State Parole Board was established to evaluate and adjudicate applications for parole as well as to provide oversight and management of offenders already admitted to parole. The two primary responsibilities of the Board are to determine the eligibility for access to parole or to sanction parolee's when warranted due to rule violations. The Board also determines the time of discharge of parolees from parole supervision, formulates policies, adopts regulations and establishes procedures. The State Parole Board hears cases at the Maine State Prison for those offenders who were sentenced prior to May 1976 (the abolition date for parole in Maine) to determine if or when inmates should be released on parole. If parolees have been accused of violating the terms of their parole the Board sits as an adjudicary body to determine if a violation has occurred and if they find that a violation has in fact occurred they impose sanctions as they see fit

Justification:

The Maine State Prison was established to protect the public by confining prisoners for the period of time required by law and to provide programs and treatment to aid in a successful return to the community. Prisoners are provided with personal assessments to determine individual needs for treatment, programs, and placement. Treatment programs include mental health and substance abuse. The education department provides instruction in literacy and attainment of GED. Other educational programs include computer skills, University of Maine college level classes, academic and vocational courses. Prisoners earn income and the State is provided revenue from the prison industry programs include; wood products, upholstery, wood refinishing, farming, wood harvesting and a retail store. Vocational programs also provide revenue to the State and include; auto body, auto mechanics, electrical, plumbing, food and building trades. Public restitution crews assist other State agencies and local municipalities in repair and renovation projects. Security in all facilities is provided for in the most humane and least restrictive manner possible. The Maine State Prison provides administrative, personnel and maintenance support functions to the Bolduc Correctional Facility. The facility was built to house 916 prisoners. It also houses a 6 bed infirmary for the adult population. A 32 bed Mental Health Unit operates in the Special Management Unit. Mental Health Services assure assessment and treatment planning for all prisoners with major mental health illnesses or behavioral disorders. Treatment may include medication management, supportive counseling, cognitive-behavioral psychotherapy, group therapy and discharge planning. Mental Health Workers collaborate with security and medical personnel, as well as community agencies to provide consistency and continuity of patient-prisoner care and treatment. Substance abuse services are provided by licensed alcohol and drug counselors. Services include the DSAT (Differential Substance Abuse Treatment), education programs and Alcoholics Anonymous (AA). Case management services are provided to all prisoners. Staff develops Individual Case Plans and monitors compliance. They also act as advocates and serve on their unit's multi-disciplinary Unit Team. For prisoners nearing release, the workers focus on community resources and re-entry programs. They frequently play a role in defusing potentially disruptive situations and provide a more stable environment. Bolduc Correctional Facility supports a variety of programs and services similar to the prison. The Education Department offers GED or High School Diploma preparation work, college programs, literacy services through Literacy Volunteers of America (LVA) and tutors, New Books, New Readers program and life skills programs. Library services, recreation and legal research opportunities are also available to the population. Vocational education programs such as auto body, auto mechanics, electrical, plumbing, building trades and culinary arts are offered. Participants can learn a trade and develop marketable skills to earn a livable wage. In addition, a cooperative work arrangement with the Department of Transportation and selected prisoners work on DOT community projects. Community restitution is also supported and plays a major role in giving back to the community. The farm program continues to provide potatoes and in season fresh produce for the prison, other facilities and offers surplus to community food banks.

Justification:

The Stream Gaging Program contracts with the US Geological Survey to provide stream gaging support to the State. The stream gage network provides timely flood warnings, as well as essential data for road and bridge construction, fisheries management, waste water regulation, agriculture, forest fire control, water utilities and many other water resource-dependent programs. The State provides input to the operation of the network through the River Flow Advisory Commission. All of the funds appropriated by the Legislature are applied to this contract. There are no State personal services or other administrative costs associated with the operation of this program; administration is absorbed by the Administration, Maine Emergency Management Agency program.

Justification:

The Bureau of Capitol Security is a law enforcement agency responsible for the safety of the people and the security of the buildings within the Capitol Area. This area includes the State House, Capitol Park, the old Augusta Mental Health campus, Riverview Psychiatric Center, and the other buildings and property owned or used by the State within Augusta. Bureau officers patrol, respond to alarms and other calls for help or assistance, maintain a security presence in the State House, and enforce state law and parking regulations in the Capitol Area. At night and on weekends, the Bureau's night watchpersons check the security of approximately 50 buildings and properties owned or used by the State in Augusta and Hallowell.

Justification:

The Bureau was created in 2004 by legislation for the purpose of providing consolidated emergency communications to state, county and local public safety agencies. This Bureau operates four Regional Communications Centers that provide both Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP) and emergency dispatch services for police, fire and emergency medical services. The Bureau also provides dispatching services for the Bureau of State Police, Department of Marine Resources, Environmental Protection, Inland Fisheries and Wildlife, Maine Drug Enforcement Agency, Maine Fire Marshals Office, and Maine Turnpike Authority.

Justification:

The Bureau of Consolidated Emergency Communications provides Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP) services and Dispatching services to a number of state, municipal, and local entities. The Department requested new positions as entities contracted with the Bureau, and the level of work increased. However, the number of Emergency Communication Technician positions required to provide services has not risen to the level originally anticipated, and the positions remain vacant. These positions can be eliminated without impacting services to the communities.

OTHER SPECIAL REVENUE FUNDS TOTAL	$4,759	$9,400

Justification:

Adjusts funding in the 2012-2013 biennium for All Other to cover payment of insurance premiums based on the State's most recent actuarial review of March, 2010. The actuarial review is required by Maine Revised Statutes, Title 5, section 1728-A, subsection 5. The rates were established using the actuarial review and follow the requirements of and are in compliance with Maine Revised Statutes, Title 5, Section 1733, Section 1734 and Section 1731-A.
